

The background of the entire page is a painterly landscape painting. It features a large, rugged mountain range in the distance, with peaks covered in snow or light-colored rock. The sky is a mix of soft blues and whites, suggesting a hazy or overcast day. In the foreground, there is a lush green valley with rolling hills, a few scattered trees, and a simple wooden fence line. The overall style is impressionistic, with visible brushstrokes and a soft, atmospheric quality.

DAVE SANTILLANES

OH BE JOYFUL
GALLERY
at Crested Butte

Sunset on the Absarokas, 24 x 36, oil (featured on front and back cover)

Through his use of gentle, dramatic light and seductively soft color Dave Santillanes's paintings bring you with him into pastoral valleys and the wilds of the Colorado high country.

For Dave a painting begins its life with a visit into the landscape and a plein air study. Then, back at his studio he reinterprets the earlier impression, searching for the same composition, palette and mood that inspired him. This process develops his concepts into finely expressed, often monumental works of art.

Known for his serenely beautiful paintings of the Rocky Mountains, Santillanes loves to paint in and around Crested Butte where Oh Be Joyful Gallery is pleased to present an extensive selection of his newest work.
