Jason Sacran & John Lasater

August 11 - September 2

ArtWalk & Artist Demos August 11

For their first show with Oh Be Joyful Gallery, award-winning northwest Arkansas plein air painters Jason Sacran and John Lasater spent ten days in the Gunnison Country early this summer making sketches and studies for a remarkable body of studio paintings assembled here for an extensive show and sale this August.

Both Jason and John are fairly new to the amazing beauty of our valley and bring a really fresh eye to evocative images ranging from sweeping high mountain vistas, to unexpected scenes of familiar places.

Jason Sacran, Beaver Lake Revisited, 18 x 24, oil

Jason Sacran received the "Best of Show" Award in the 18th annual American Impressionist Society competition for his painting "Beaver Lake Revisited" and we are proud to be able to feature this stunning painting (above) in our show.

The painting will be available for purchase through a fixed-price drawing* at his opening on Saturday, August 11 at 7pm, and will be on display in the gallery prior to the opening.

If you are interested in purchasing the painting, contact the gallery anytime between now and 7pm on August 11th, 2018. Each interested patron will receive one ticket for the drawing which if drawn entitles them to purchase the painting at its fixed price. All patrons participating in the drawing will receive a 5% collectors consideration towards the purchase of any of Jason's paintings.
