An Evening with George Bumann

Join us for live sculpting and a presentation by George Bumann

at the Mallardi Cabaret Theatre on July 1st, at 7pm

A talented presenter, George regularly speaks to audiences sharing his passions of art, nature and ecology.

Perhaps no other living sculptor has spent as much time observing the wildlife that inspires his artwork as George Bumann. His work can be found in the collections of the National Wildlife Museum, the Brinton, and the C.M. Russell Museum.

His bronzes are exquisite portraits of specific animals and instances he observes living on the northernmost edge of Yellowstone National Park near Mammoth Hot Springs.

Both galleries have a large selection of his bronzes on view and on July 1st stop by the gallery to watch him sculpt.
