

OH BE JOYFUL GALLERY

Crested Butte has had its official state designation as the "Wildflower Capital of Colorado" since 1990. As a gallery full of artists and staff alike with an appreciation for floral art of all kinds, we've put together a selection of some of our favorite floral-themed pieces in conjunction with this year's Crested Butte Wildflower Festival, taking place July 9 - 18.

Please enjoy, and feel free to stop in to the gallery any time to see the artwork in person, or to ask our favorite wildflower hike recommendations!
