JIM WODARK

Jim Wodark is a natural master of composition, invariably opening a way for us to ease ourselves right into his world of irresistible colors and moods.

His lonesome cowboy paintings are full blown blasts from the past, and one of his gorgeous western landscapes can burst over a person like a Sonoran sunrise!

As he always does, Jim has blown our hats off with an articulate new body of work that echoes both the cowboy past and the present-day ranching culture in the West.

His work never fails to draw us in and keep us engaged in his vision. Nobody ever gets tired of a looking at a Jim Wodark painting.
